

George Richard

Teacher, School District 83

George Richard has been a BC Public School Educator for nearly 25 years. In the past, George's students have won multiple awards in Yearbook Publishing and Video Production. He has always taught career-based courses at schools in Fort St. John and Salmon Arm but started to specialize in youth career development in the last 10 years. George is currently School District 83's Career Education Coordinator based in Salmon Arm, B.C., a community he has called home for the past 16 years.
