CANADA

The Interior Designers of Canada Foundation (IDCF) was founded in 1990 as a registered charitable foundation, with a mission to contribute to the advancement of the interior design profession nationally.

IDCF is managed by a board of volunteers, with support from IDC staff, who organize events to raise funds for the foundation and help promote the work of the foundation and IDC members across the country.

About the Foundation

In addition, the IDCF:

- Provides scholarships, bursaries, and fellowships to interior design students and practitioners to further their training, development and/or continuing education;
- Provides for the preparation and dissemination to the public of educational and scientific information on the discipline of interior design, and in the related arts and sciences, through such means as publications, exhibits, conferences, lectures, and seminars;
- Provides grants in aid of research or to undertake research in the field of interior design and in associated disciplines.

SCHOLARSHIPS & BURSARIES

IDCF scholarships and bursaries for students and interns are open year-round.

The Robert Ledingham Scholarship

Amount: $2,000

Awarded to one or more candidates who have recently been accepted, or who are currently enrolled (within their first year of study) in graduate school at the master's or doctorate level.

Wayne Thomson Bursary

Amount: $500 USD

Awarded to one or more candidates under financial hardship who have recently completed the IDFX, IDPX and are eligible for or have completed the practicum for the NCIDQ.

BYU Bursary

Amount: $500 (approximately)

Awarded to one or more emerging professionals who, for reasons of financial hardship, are unable to join their provincial interior design association as an Intern/Provisional member.

Scholarships & Grants

RESEARCH GRANTS

In addition to the three research grants that were made available for IDC members in 2021, a new grant, the IDCF Project Grant was made public in 2022. Members are invited to submit applications to the following grants:

1. IDCF Research and Development Grant
For conducting research by a practitioner.
2. IDCF Research Grant
For conducting research by a practitioner or an academic.
3. IDCF Research Bursary
For students in master's and PhD programs who submit research projects – for their work on a thesis or for research.
4. IDCF Project Grant
For support by a stakeholder in the interior design profession

FUNDRAISING

To aid in the Foundation's ability to continue to fund research and educational opportunities, starting in 2022, IDC membership invoices includes a line for donation to the IDCF. The funds raised from the membership campaign totaled $975.
