

Julianna KaiserFounder and Registered Interior Designer at Studio Kaiser

Studio Kaiser, founded by Julianna Kaiser, brings modern interior design solutions to residential and commercial projects across the Okanagan Valley in British Columbia.

Julianna was born in Penticton and raised on the Naramata Bench therefore the Okanagan Valley has always been home. Upon moving to Toronto in 2010, Julianna obtained a Bachelor of Interior Design (BID) degree from Toronto Metropolitan University in 2014. When she returned to the Okanagan Valley in 2020, she received a National Council of Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ) designation in 2023. Over the past decade, she has gained valuable experience in the architecture and design field across Canada, collaborating with allied professionals, vendors and trades to provide practical design solutions for public, commercial and residential clients. The studio prioritizes the use of sustainable and functional materials, following a design philosophy of "less is more" that is rooted in modernist architecture and design. Each project by Studio Kaiser is unique and tailored to fit the specific requirements, preferences, budget, and goals of the client.

Julianna is a Registered Interior Designer with the Interior Designers Institute of British Columbia (IDIBC) and is an active professional member of the Okanagan Society of Interior Designers (OSID) and Interior Designers of Canada (IDC).
