

Tony Tu*Associate | Sr Interior Designer at Gensler

Tony is a Registered Interior Designer in British Columbia and a Senior Interior Designer at Gensler. He holds a Master of Science degree in Interior Architecture from Philadelphia University and has over 20 years of international experience across diverse sectors, including workplace, multi-family, education, and sciences.

As a passionate supporter of the design community, Tony serves as a member of the Exam Item Writing Committee at CIDQ and as a board member at IDIBC, where he mentors students and helps foster the development of emerging designers. At Gensler's Vancouver office, he co-leads Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) initiatives, championing a culture of inclusivity and collaboration.

Beyond his professional work, Tony is committed to giving back to his local community through volunteer efforts with Vancouver Chinatown BIA initiatives. In his downtime, he enjoys travelling, exploring the city, discovering new restaurants, and spending time outdoors.
