

Robin Lalonde

Interior Designer, Number TEN Architectural Group

Robin is a professional interior designer with Number Ten Architectural Group, bringing over 20 years of experience to a diverse range of projects across the Education, Workplace, and Institutional sectors. A co-lead for Number Ten's Learning Environments Knowledge Community, Robin has led the interior design of several award-winning education facilities. In addition to her design expertise, Robin is a LEED-accredited professional and is deeply committed to sustainability, working on projects that prioritize environmental responsibility. She is passionate about creating beautiful, functional, and sustainable spaces that reflect the vision of each client.